This is the Application Form for the University of Melbourne Capitol-Washington Internship Program which runs for 8 weeks from Thursday 3 January 2008 to Friday 29 February 2008.

DUE DATE: Friday 1 June 2007

IMPORTANT: Applications MUST arrive by the due date. There is NO extension of time.

For credit in Political Science: The completed Application with all documentation must be submitted to Mr Thomas Davis tdavis@unimelb.edu.au (Department of Political Science) both electronically and in hard copy on or before Friday 1 June 2007.

For credit in Law (Legal Internship): The completed Application with all documentation must be submitted to Ms Miranda Stewart m.stewart@unimelb.edu.au (Faculty of Law) both electronically and in hard copy on or before Friday 1 June 2007.

All material will be forwarded by Mr Davis and Ms Stewart to the Director of the Internship Program in Washington and ultimately to a congressional office in the event that a specific placement is proposed by the Director and accepted by the student. It is the congressional office that makes the final acceptance decision.

The Capitol-Washington Internship Program aims to provide work experience and employment training for students by placing them with a participating Congressional office or Committee in the US Congress, Washington DC. The goals of the Internship Program are to:

- enable students to develop high quality work place knowledge, skills and experience
- build students’ confidence in their own abilities
- assist students to clarify their career goals and expectations
- enhance the quality of the university experience for students
- enable students to develop contacts to assist their entry into employment
- allow students to gain overseas referees who can comment on their work skills
- give an advantage to students in gaining employment
- give Congressional participants access to students with an international perspective on American politics and law
- establish links between Congressional participants and the University of Melbourne
- provide Australia with a pool of graduates with a high level of insight into American politics, law and government.

For more information about the Internship and the list of US Congressional offices and committees that will be Placement Providers in 2008, see the separate Uni-Capitol Washington Internship Programme Guide 2008 and the Information Sheet for Law Students or Information Sheet for Politics Students (whichever is relevant). Successful applicants may be eligible to apply for Melbourne University Study Abroad funding assistance. For more information about funding, see the separate Information Sheets.

Statement of Responsibilities and Declaration

Important: A signed hard copy of this page MUST be included with your Application.

Responsibilities of Student Interns

1. Students, whilst engaged in a Washington Internship Placement, shall be bound by the rules, regulations, protocols and by-laws of the Placement Provider and Melbourne University.

2. Standards of dress and behaviour shall be observed and maintained appropriately in keeping with the nature and purpose of the Washington Internship Placement.

3. Students will work to fulfil the duties of Washington Internship Placements within stated times established with the Placement Provider.

4. Students will attend the Washington Internship Orientation Program training before being placed with the Placement Provider.

5. Students will respect the confidentiality of the Placement Provider. No reports in the form of oral, written, graphic or electronic information pertaining to the Placement Provider or its operations will be made available to any person or company without the consent in writing of the Placement Provider. If students wish to utilise information gained during the course of Washington Internship Placements after the completion of the placement, prior consent in writing must be obtained from the Placement Provider, and any material so produced must be approved by the Placement Provider before release.

6. Students will abide by any agreement made between the parties, and will not undertake any independent negotiations with the Placement Provider.

7. Students will perform all reasonable requirements of the Placement Provider, and meet all statutory requirements and workplace codes of practice.

8. Students will be responsible for their own travel, accommodation and living expenses whilst in Washington.

9. Students will act with appropriate respect and social maturity in the provided accommodation. No overnight guests will be permitted in the accommodation at which the Washington Internship Program students are residing without the consent of all students involved. Even then, no guest will be permitted to stay more than one night.

10. Students will be responsible for the payment of their share of the apartment rent when required by the Programme Director.

Declaration

To the best of my knowledge any information that I have provided on this form is true and correct. I am an Australian citizen. I have read the Responsibilities of Interns and agree to the general conditions outlined in those Responsibilities. If any liability shall arise to Melbourne University as a result of my providing false or misleading information, I agree to indemnify Melbourne University for any such liability.

I can afford the cost of travel, accommodation and living expenses for the duration of the eight week Internship Program.
